HONOR CODE STATEMENT FOR EXAMINATION

I, _____, am taking this written/oral PBOG examination with an understanding that it will serve to measure my competence and expertise as an OB-GYNE Doctor. As such, I undertake to respond to the questionnaire on the basis of my own personal understanding and knowledge of OB-GYNE precepts. It is important to me to be a person of integrity and that means that ALL ANSWERS on this exam are my answers. I also agree to take the exam online on my own free will, not acting under any form of duress.

I will not use any printed, electronic and other media to search answers during the conduct of this exam, knowing that this would be an academic misconduct. I will not document and provide answers and questions from this exam to other examinees and will not take or receive answers and questions on this exam from other examinees and non-examinees.

Any proven form of cheating, dishonest conduct or unruly behavior is a violation of the Rules of Examination and shall be ground for the invalidation of the examination process and result without prejudice to any other additional sanctions which the PBOG may decide to impose as stated in the PBOG Handbook, 5th edition, 2017.
