HONOR CODE FOR EXAMINATION

I, _____, am taking this Written/Oral Philippine Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology (PBOG) examination with an understanding that it will serve to measure my competence and expertise as an Obstetrician-Gynecologist. As such, I undertake to respond to the questionnaire based on my own personal understanding and knowledge of OB-GYN precepts. It is important that I be a person of integrity and that means that ALL ANSWERS ON THIS EXAMINATION are my own.

I understand undertaking this examination is a voluntary process, and that I will be taking it on my own free will, and not acting under any form of duress.

I will abide by the RULES of the examination and will NOT have in my possession any electronic devices such as but not limited to mobile phones, smartwatch, Bluetooth listening or transmitting devices and other gadgets that will allow me to receive, search, transmit or store information while in the examination premises. I will not have in my possession whether I use it or not any printed, electronic, and other similar contraband which contain files relative to Obstetrics and Gynecology. I will not receive answers and questions on this exam from other examinees and non-examinees.

I will not document, memorize and provide questions and or answers to parts or the whole of this examination to other examinees, future examinees or review groups or organizations. If irregularities were observed in the conduct of the examination, the board reserves the right to conduct due investigation and appropriate action. I fully agree and understand that if requested by PBOG, I will voluntarily cooperate in the investigation of any suspected violation.

Any cheating, dishonest conduct, unruly behavior, or breach in the Rules of the Examination shall result in invalidation of my examination and will result in my disqualification to be able to take the examination for a period of three (3) years without prejudice to any other additional sanctions which the PBOG may decide to impose, as stated in the PBOG handbook, 6th edition, 2022-2023.

TODAY I MAKE THIS OATH. May GOD help me.
